

Beautiful Moon of Kentucky (ESP 1156) Mitchell Osawa

OPENER

Circle Left

There's a beautiful moon shining down on Kentucky,
Where the fields of bluegrass are growing

Walk all Around your corner girl and See Saw your Taw
Left Allemande and Weave

For the girl that I love she waits for me I know

Swing your own and Promenade.*

'Neath the beautiful moon, shining down on Kentucky,
Tomorrow, that's where I will be.

Alternate line: To return from old sunny Tennessee*

MIDDLE BREAK LYRICS

Well, I left my old home way down in Kentucky,
And headed for old sunny Tennessee.

Continue same as in Opener

ENDING

All four girls Promenade, once inside around now.

Well, get back home, Swing the girl you know.

All Join your hands, Circle to the Left, go around now.

For the girl that I love she waits for me, I know.

Swing your own and Promenade

'Neath the beautiful moon, shining down on Kentucky,
Tomorrow, that's where I will be.

TAG
