

OPENER

CIRCLE LEFT

When I was young and in my prime

I left my home in Caroline

Walk all Around Your Corner, See Saw your own

Gents Star Right inside you roam

I've got the blue ridge mountain blues

Swing your lady Promenade

Every day I'm countin' till I reach that mountain

On that blue ridge far away.

FIGURE

Heads/Sides Separate around one come down the middle

Square Thru three hands around you go

Split the outsides, Around one make a line of four

Pass Thru and Bend the Line once more

Pass Thru and Tag the line all the way through

Leaders Trade, Swing the Corner and

Promenade

Every day I'm countin' till I reach that mountain

On that blue ridge far away.

MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Four Ladies Promenade inside come back and Swing and whirl this guy

Join all hands and Circle to the Left go movin'

I've got the blue ridge mountain blues

(and I stand right here to say)

Every day I'm countin' till I reach that mountain
On that blue ridge far away.

TAG

Swing

On that blue ridge far away.
