Who work hard every day

Not for fame or fortune do they strive

Men star by the left go once inside

You turn the partner by the right, go left allemande

Come back one & swing, promenade the land

**Hello Detroit auto worker, thank you for your time

Workin' hard for a living, to send it on down the line

ALTERNATE LYRICS

*You can see them every morning

In the factories & the fields

City streets & quiet country towns

**Hello Kansas wheat field farmer

Hello Pittsburg steel mill worker

Hello West Virginia coal miner

Head (side) couples promenade 1/2 way you go

Walk in & square thru, gotta get 4 you know

When you meet the sides, a right hand star exactly 1/2 way around

As a couple, veer left, as a couple circulate

Bend the line, reverse flutter wheel

Workin' together like spokes inside a wheel

Keepin' this country turnin' round
